

— A prestigious villa overlooking the Gulf of Palermo
A timeless and charming journey into Art Nouveau and Sicilian flavors.

Hotel — A landmark for more than a century, since its design by famed architect Ernesto Basile, the Grand Hotel Villa Igiea Palermo is a magnificent example of Art Nouveau. Built during the grandeur of the Belle Époque period, this building with its characteristic castle shape derives its name from the Greek nymph of health, Igiea. Cool down with a dip in the Greek-style outdoor swimming pool, enjoy a leisurely match on the tennis court, energize with a workout in the Fitness Center or simply soak up the sun on the terrace before enjoying a delicious Mediterranean meal in the sophisticated Donna Franca Florio restaurant.

Exclusive services — We deliver high-level services to make sure you'll experience unforgettable moments in a warm, comfortable environment:

RESTAURANTS AND BARS

Grand Hotel Villa Igiea offers an incredible culinary experience offering a wide selection of Mediterranean and international cuisines.

- Our main restaurant Donna Franca Florio with its terrace overlooking the sea, serves Mediterranean specialities for lunch and dinner.

- The Cuvée du Jour, our gourmet restaurant, is the perfect location for gourmand. You can enjoy excellent tasting menus personally cured by our Executive Chef Carmelo Trentacosti.
- The Pool Bar open during the summer season, is located in our garden with secular trees, overlooking the sea with an incredible panorama.

CONFERENCE/MEETING ROOMS

Villa Igiea's splendid halls and Convention Centre have played host and continue to play host to Party conventions, meetings of Ministers and Heads of State, and high-level conferences which often were an impetus to the political, economic and social life of Sicily and the whole country. The 400 sq meters Conference Center, hosting up to 400 delegates, is ideal for large scale events. The Basile room, restyled on Ernesto Basile project and decorated by the painter Ettore De Maria Bergler, can accommodate up to 120 delegates.
